NO.: 22-C-07003-S7

VERDICT FORM

WE, THE JURY, find as follows:

We the jury find for Defendants Amazon Logistics, Inc., Thompson & Carter Entities, LLC (d/b/a Fly Fellas Logistics) and Jawonn Carter and against Plaintiff Philip Bradfield, individually and as father and natural guardian or Gabriel Bradfield.

-OR-

We the jury find for Plaintiff Philip Bradfield and make the following findings:

(If you found for the Defendants, STOP HERE, turn to page 3, and have the foreperson sign, and date the verdict form. If you found for the Plaintiff, continue to the next question.)

1. Relationship between Amazon Logistics and Thompson and Carter Entities and Jawonn Cowan: Select only one.

Amazon Logistics exercised control over Thompson and Carter Entities and Jawonn Cowan such that it created the relationship of employer and employee.

-OR-

Amazon Logistics had an independent contractor relationship with Thompson and Carter Entities and was not an employer of Jawonn Cowan.

(If you selected employer/employee, then please move to question 2. If you selected independent contractor, please move to question number 3.)

2. Plaintiff Philip Bradfield's claim for negligent training against Defendant Amazon Logistics: Select only one.

We the jury find for Plaintiff Philip Bradfield against Defendant Amazon Logistics for negligent training.

-OR-

We the jury find for Defendant Amazon Logistics and against Plaintiff Philip Bradfield for negligent training.

3. Allocation of Fault

We the jury find the percentages of fault for Gabriel Bradfield's injuries to be as follows: The percentages of fault must add up to 100%.

0 Philip Bradfield

5 Caroline McClure

10 Jawonn Cowan and his employer(s)

85 Amazon Logistics, Inc. for negligent training
(You may only allocate fault to Amazon Logistics for negligent training if you find that Amazon negligently trained Jawonn Cown in question 2.)

The percentages of fault must add up to 100%. After you have allocated fault, move to question 4.

4. Damages

We find the damages in this case to be as follows, without any reduction for percentages of fault.

Past Medical Expenses $206,680.92

Past Pain and Suffering $4,000,000

Future Pain and Suffering $12,000,000

Please have the foreperson sign and date below.
